

Sexual exploitation is a crime

Checklist for reception staff

If you see something suspicious or think it is happening in your hotel speak to your manager and call West Midlands Police on 101.

Perpetrators aren't always easy to spot. However, you can help by being vigilant and knowing what to look out for.

Warning signs

- Older men with young girls or boys
- Men hanging around the hotel and lots of men visiting a room
- Teenage girls loitering in the lobby area or hallways
- Guests refusing to provide ID
- Guests insisting on paying by cash
- Young boys or girls looking scared, withdrawn or under the influence of drugs and alcohol
- Guests who appear to be secretive about their stay or who try to conceal their activities in their room

For more information visit www.seeme-hearme.org.uk